We've been on the hunt for our favorite creations again, so let's get stuck into this month's edition!

Starnyte | Pixel Beasts

The first highlight of this month is an adorable creation 'Starnyte' by Pixel Beasts. This playful pixel art animation impressed us with its vibrant color palette, utilizing deep blues and purples to form the backdrop of a night sky within the wings, really bringing the animation to life. We loved this charming creature with its playful, sparkly attributes, and huge bright, cosmos-filled eyes. The animation also adds a gentle dynamic element to the piece that we thought was a great touch.

Mirror Lake | Chrispy

This serene landscape captured in our next featured NFT invites us to take a moment to admire the natural beauty of Krabi, Southern Thailand. The still waters mirror the sky above beautifully, creating a symphony of blues that are both calming and majestic. The photograph is filled with lush greenery, and the scene is a masterclass in the art of reflection and composition. We were big fans of the peaceful, tranquil vibes this photograph gives off.

Sublime Equilibrium | AbstractLoop3D

Next up is a slightly haunting, thought-provoking piece from AbstractLoop3D titled 'Sublime Equilibrium'. We really enjoyed the still waters that mirror the sky, creating a lovely gradient-filled blend of blue that's both calming and majestic.

Evening Visitor | morechashu

We had to include 'Evening Visitor', which is a delightful pixel art piece that really displays a sense of warmth and nostalgia. The scene is set in a snowy evening at a ramen stand, along with a vibrant sign that's casting a welcoming glow against the dimly lit street. We liked the focus on the street vendor's kind interaction with a curious cat, which we think adds a touch of life, narrative and character to the composition.

All-seeing Eye #1 | FreedomStake

All-seeing Eye #1" by FreedomStake creates a surreal landscape that makes the imagination truly run wild. The scene unfolds under an immense moon, casting a glow over a series of mysterious, monolithic structures emerging from a tranquil expanse of water. We thought the main focal point was great; which is an eye within a pyramid, and it beams an ethereal light that looks like it could hold much deeper meaning...

Lo Que Lloran Los Muertos #9 | Motroco

A firm favourite at Uptick, Motroco invites us once again into the realm of the macabre. This hauntingly composed photograph features a strikingly eery mask that melds the mechanical with the ancient, and is filled with industrial elements that add to the darkness of the photograph. This image really impressed us with its rich detail and somber display, and overall, it is a powerful image that we felt held a rightful place in this month's edition.

Flight Over a Tree | Notonboldstreet

Our next NFT really captured the vibrant energy of Liverpool, from an aerial view, centering around a uniquely modern Christmas tree. The drone footage offers an interesting and dynamic perspective as it circles the tree, with each hue glowing against the early evening bustle of the cityscape. We were really drawn to this piece for its lively representation of holiday spirit and urban life in Liverpool, and can't wait to see more awesome drone footage on the marketplace.

"Honey Bear" by AliceDraws is a super charming illustration that exudes sweetness. The sketch showcases a delightful bear, with a contented smile, as it gleefully indulges in a pot of honey. Part of a wider sketchbook series, we thought this would be a cute addition to this month's series.

This next piece as an afro-futurism inspired watercolour painting that beautifully melds the silhouette with the floral imagery. We thought the composition was really striking, and the colour palette utilized perfectly complemented the scene.
