

Uptick Curated

November Edition

Uptick Curated is a chance to showcase some of the wonderful and talented creators from the Uptick Ecosystem. Each month we pick some of our favorites and share with the community.

We've been on the hunt for our favorite creations again, so let's get stuck into this month's edition!

Yiliang — CC7 | Fabio Nodari

This aerial shot from China's Jiangxi province showcases the region's famous rapeseed flower fields in full bloom, with their vibrant magenta coloring stretching endlessly across the landscape. Nodari's perspective from above captures the scale of agricultural beauty that draws visitors to witness these seasonal expanses firsthand.

Mahabharata, Page 9 | Oivato

Agosto

Our next entry draws inspiration from the epic Indian text to create a surreal tunnel of pink and red tones, with a meditating figure at the center surrounded by radiating organic forms. The illustration uses the ancient narrative as a framework for exploring spiritual introspection and the cyclical nature of cosmic forces.

Fun Walks | Orionutami

Orionutami combines simple line drawings with three-dimensional red forms to tell a story about family dynamics, where the sculptural elements interact with the flat sketch.

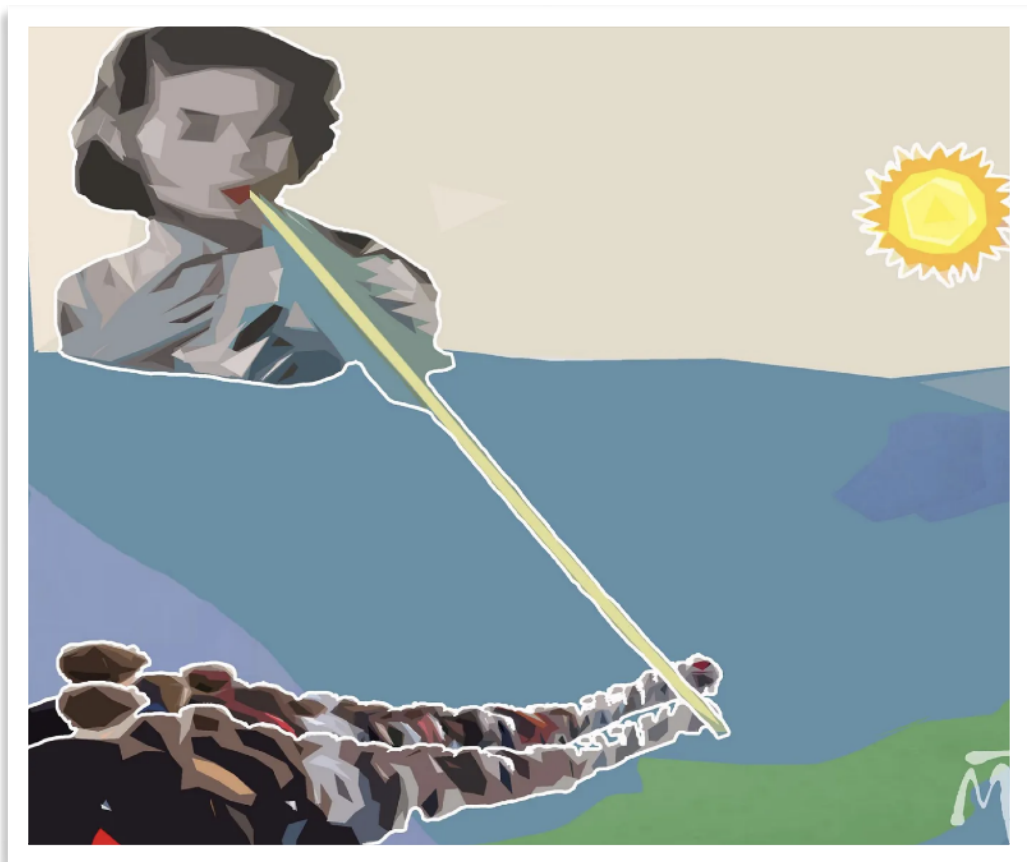

Created by Orionutami

Cannibal | MT Zone

MT Zone uses sharp geometric shapes and muted colors to depict a figure in water with a beam of light connecting them to the sun, creating a fragmented quality that suggests isolation and the stark relationship between human existence and natural forces.
